

Hotel Information System

---

This system allows the users to record the details of different hotels. It also allows the users to search for the hotel using two different methods i.e., search hotels using accommodation fee and search hotels using hotel category.

Other Features:

1. Save function to save details in text format.
2. Open function to open a text file containing hotel details.
3. Clear table function to clear the table details.

